Of course the affair can be described. Oh, yes, it can be shown up in all its horrid nakedness, but that doesn't explain.

It was a sort of "Get-Poor-Quick" game so far as the Elders were concerned. They started off well, but got poor early, only to be reduced to the most abject poverty by the time it ended. At the end of the second they looked like a million dollars' worth of hay, but they bore a marked resemblance to a 10-cent package of diamonds when the playing rules mereifully intervened after nine innings had been hacked off.

McGinnity and Bowerman. to spell the lad's name, too, but its correctness is vouched for by that eminent orthographist, John Franklin Gimlin, F. R. C. S. X. Y. X. & A., Oxnard, '61. Well, anyhow, Bare opened it with a single, and the merry carnival began to end only after Ogcarnival began to end only after Ogden had hit around once and lapped over four numbers. Eight runs were picked out from among the heaps of slain, with six hits, three errors and two walks duly filed and recorded. The next inning one need much the same of th next inning opened much the same way, except that Bare hit for two bunles this time. Two more safe hits and walk appeared to Elder Reilly to be ufficient justification for the removal f Toren, who had received more varieties of bum support than often falls to a pitcher in one lifetime. Mead, dis-carded early in the season and ex-humed recently, was dragged in during the sixth inning and escaped in reasonably good shape.

Crowd Roots for Ogden.

But the die had been cast. Yea, it had been molded, polished and var-nished. From that time on all hands except those most intimately concerned —the Elders—gave themselves up to a season of wildest rejoicing, an orgy of satanic mirth. Everybody tooted for Ogden, and the lads who follow the Gimlin plume had things so easy that Gimlin plume had things so easy that it was a high crime to partake.

What made it peculiarly atrocious was that the game opened so pleasantly for the Elders, who drove Henrique de Fulmer ashore in the first inning. Stickney began with a single, took second and third on a wild pitch and a passed ball, and scored when Erastus Lemuel Wright stretched a left field hit for three sacks. Carpovic single hit for three sacks. Carney's single placed Erastus on the bench with the second run. Three singles and a stea brought Tozer home in the second when Hastings began to maneuver the hide. Four singles, a double and a walk added four runs to the string. The best Ogden could do up to this time was a pesky two, but what they did later was all-sufficient, while the Hodson Knocked Out of the Box by Indians.

Spokane, Wash., June 18.—The locals won the only game of the series easily today by pounding two Boise pitchers, while Klinkhammer had splendid control. Hits were fairly plentiful off him, but a gingery field gave him proper support on the few occasions when he needed it. Hodson was pounded out of the Boise box in the fourth, and McFarlan, who succeeded him, pitched better ball, but the Indians already had secured a lead of four runs. Swain was the star for the locals. He made a brilliant one-handed running catch, retiring Boise with two men on bases, and followed up this advantage with a home run when next at bat, bringing in a runner. Smith and Schils executed a pretty double play, and Ferris and Baxter performed an easy one.

A large crowd saw the contest. There was plenty of hitting and base running, and the enthusiasm was strong. Knox disputed the umpire's decision and was fined. St. and ruled out of the game. (Special to The Herald.)

St. Louis, June 18.—St. Louis broke even with New York by knocking McGinnity out of the box. Eight consecutive singles, a base on balls and a hit batsman gave St. Louis seven runs. CHAMPS BEAT SOLDIERS

Former Umpire Setley and Hanes Sign to Play Ball With Enreka. (Special to The Herald.)

Eureka, June 18.—The Fort Douglas aseball team was beaten today in a game with Eureka by a score of 10 to 6. The soldiers were no match for the champions, but by bunching hits in the fourth inning and by errors by the Eureka team, they managed to pile up six runs. Haynes and Setley, the two new additions to the Eureka team, are all right in the estimation of the local fans. In today's geme Wall played shortstop and Morris third base. Wall is as good a man at short as he is in the outfield, and Setley, when he gets accustomed to the grounds, will no doubt cover second base as well as Douglas. Haynes made two brilliant catches in center field, and Wall's catch in the second inning was hearitly applauded. This catch and a double play by the soldiers were the features of the game.

Next Thursday a benefit will be played for Captain "Sis" Taylor of the Eureka team, who had his ribs broken in the first game here against the Oregon Short Line team. "Sis" Taylor is exceedingly ill, unlooked for complications having set in. The game will be between the Eureka team and a picked team of players from the town, and a big crowd is expected, as Captain Taylor is popular with the fans. rith Eureka by a score of 10 to 6. The Hopkins, the new second baseman, made his first appearance in the local lineup and created a 1s-vorable impression, accepting his seven chances in good shape.
